5 and 6

1. Comment. Incoming shipments decreased. This development may be a consequence of the grave food crisis in East Germany.
2. Comment. Outgoing shipments were at the same level as during the first quarter of the year. In May and June, outgoing shipments exceeded the volume of incoming shipments.
3. Comment. Most of the officers mentioned were previously known as mess officers of the military posts listed.
4. Comment. The slight divergence in the volume of outgoing shipments (about 5 percent) to be found in paragraphs 2 and 3 was explained previously.
5. Comment. Field kitchens and kitchen equipment are stored in Frankfurt/Oder-Winkelhofen. The volume of this traffic decreased compared with the first quarter of 1953.
6. Comment. covered the turnover of ration supplies at the installation.
